

Understanding Mental Illness and Developmental Disabilities

8 Hours – Continuing Training Credit

This training is highly recommended for sworn personnel to assist, and serve those with a mental illness and/or a developmental disability. This one day training will include but not limited to; legal issues, psychiatric disorders, family perspectives, substance abuse, communication skills, community resources and the crisis system.